

His Royal Majesty is visiting Tennessee....See <http://www.adassafoundation.org> for details.

His Royal Majesty

Special Thanks to:

Administrators, faculty, staff, and students of
LeMoyne-Owen College

Management and staff of
LeMoyne-Owen College
Community Development Corporation

State Representative G.A. Hardaway Sr.
Tennessee 92nd Legislative District.

Ms. Florence Howard

Ekiti Citizens of Memphis

SPONSOR

LeMoyne-Owen College Community Development Corporation

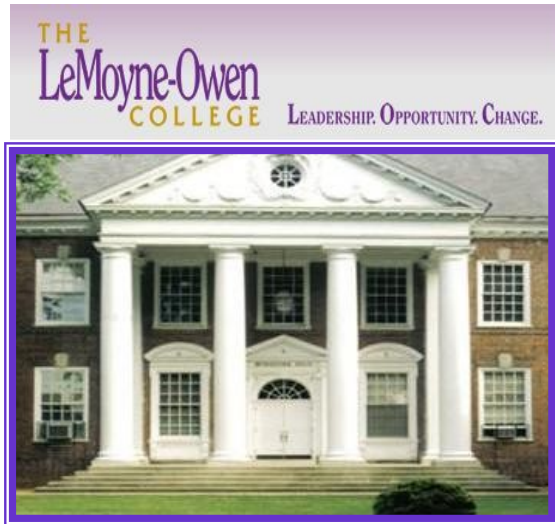

Memphis

For more information, please contact Dr. Austin Emeagwai at austin_emeagwai@loc.edu or (901) 363-0795

A Reception in Honor of
King Emmanuel & Queen Mary Adebayo
October 15, 2009

Dr. Johnnie B. Watson
President

Dr. Barbara Frankle,
Dean of Faculty

Mr. Jeffrey Higgs
President/CEO LeMoyne-Owen College
Community Development Corporation

Dr. Femi Ajanaku
Director, Center for African & African American Studies

Dr. Austin Emeagwai
Associate Professor of Accounting &
Advisor, International Students Association

Mr. Jerome Heard
Student majoring in Music, Mr. LOC & HBCU

Ms. LaNette Watts
Student majoring Special Education, Miss LOC

PROGRAM

Opening Prayers	Rev. Alexander Adebajo
Welcome	Dr. Johnnie B. Watson
History of LeMoyne-Owen	Dr. Barbara Frankle
Greetings from LeMoyne-Owen College students	Mr. Jerome Heard Ms. LaNette Watts
Introduction of the Royal Family Entourage	Hon. State Rep. G.A. Hardaway, Sr.
Introduction of the Royal Family	Dr. (Mrs.) Princess Fumi Ogunleye Hancock
Introduction of Ekiti citizens and other off-campus guests	Dr. Austin Emeagwai
Introduction of College Administrators, faculty, staff & students	Dr. Femi Ajanaku
Community Development Programs of King Adebayo	Dr. Austin Emeagwai
Presentation of Award	Mr. Jeffrey Higgs
Remarks by His Majesty	His Royal Highness King Emmanuel Adebayo
Closing Prayer	Mr. Keith Millbrook
Refreshment & Networking	