In February 2008, I had the opportunity to go back to my community in Nigeria, after 23 years of absence. It was very exciting to be a part of the coronation ceremony for King Emmanuel Adebayo. I was equally very anxious as I walked down the streets to places I had not seen since I was a teenager.

During my visit, the King discussed his vision for this wonderful community and his hope that family and friends from within and outside of the community will join him in making Emure Kingdom a healthy place for our children and their families.

We at Adassa Adumori Foundation heard the mandate and we moved into action. Join us as we give back to our unsung heroes, the children of Emure Kingdom. (www.adassafoundation.org / www.givebacktn.org)
